ANOTHER TREAT.

The Marquardt Gave Their Second Concert to a Large Audience.

The Y. M. C. A. hall was filled on Saturday night by a large and fashionable audience, which showed its appreciation of the excellent concert given under the management of Frank L. Hoogs, by Mrs. Breitschuck Marquardt, the famous harpist. This gifted lady played as brilliantly as ever and was ably accompanied on the piano by Professor Oscar Herold. Mr. John Marquardt played the violin in a superior manner. The rendition of Wilhelmj's version of Walther's solo from Wagner's Die Meistersinger was rendered in a masterly way. Manager Hoogs had received the assistance of Miss Jessie L. Axtell, whose well-trained voice helped to make the evening a musical success. The trios for violin, organ, and harp were a special feature of the evening. Isn't it time soon to discard from concert programmes the well-worn "one string" airs and variations of Paganini. That kind of music is simply a play to the gallery. Mr. Paganini, who fortunately now is playing somewhere on a rainbow—they won't have him in H—arlem—was according to most modern musical critics, simply a musical juggler. There is no reason for going on imitating him. In the audience were many prominent people, among whom can be mentioned Ministers W. O. Smith and Castle and Senator H. W. Schmidt. At the urgent request of the music-comprehending public a concert has been arranged for to-morrow evening. This will be the last appearance here of the Marquardts, who leave for Australia on Thursday. Reserved seats can be secured at Hobron's drug store.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

Ladies' Shirt Waists, a new lot just opened, only $1 each at N. S. Sachs', 520 Fort street.

Mr. Barnes Opens.

A Magnificent Stock of Japanese Goods.

Mr. A. Barnes, who a short while ago returned from Japan has opened a temporary store in which he displays his beautiful selection of arts of virtue and luxury. The goods are arranged in Mr. Cunha's building, known as the Republic, on King street, and fanciers of Japanese art and genuine goods will do well to call around and inspect the stock presented. The goods are selected with a taste that has not been equalled here. The prices quoted simply show that Mr. Barnes does not propose to impose on the public, but simply wishes to furnish fine goods at most reasonable rates. To-day we mention a few objects which will sell readily. Silver headed canes made of Malacca and Ebony are offered at prices from $2.50 to $4. Unmounted Ebony Sticks can be had at 25 cents a piece. Beautiful Japanese slippers made of the finest straw are quoted at 25 cents a pair. Mats that surpass the Nihau mat are sold for 75 cents a piece. Grass cloth in the finest texture and in grey or white colors are priced at 40 cents a yard.

Toilet articles as brushes, etc., etc., are found in great selection and at marvelous cheap prices. Crockery, silver ware, fancy bed quilts are numerous. It will be well to call around early, because within two weeks the whole outfit will be sold and the public will have to wait until Barnes makes another trip. Nothing similar to the stock offered can be found in the Japanese stores in Honolulu.
